
The villainous attacks of the republicans of Lawrence county upon Judge Poindexter, former county judge of Lawrence county, is partially responsible for the democratic victory in that county. It is said that George Dent, editor of the Black Rock Telephone, in a recent issue of his paper, declared he did not care whether former County Judge Poindexter, who is in Colorado for his health, dies or gets well. The democrats of Lawrence county won a splendid victory in the recent election.
